

Submission of the Electronic Birth Certificate (EBC) Birth Dose Hepatitis B Vaccine and/or Hepatitis B Immune Globulin (HBIG) Data

OTHER BEST PRACTICE Baby is born. Baby is born. Baby receives birth dose of Baby receives birth dose of hepatitis B (hepB) vaccine and/or hepB vaccine and/or HBIG. hepatitis B immune globulin (HBIG) within 12 hours of birth. A hospital worksheet is completed but the hepB A hospital worksheet is vaccine and/or HBIG completed and hepB administration date is vaccine and/or HBIG not noted. administration date is noted. This worksheet information is used to complete the Electronic Hospital staff should obtain hepB Birth Certificate (EBC) vaccine and/or HBIG administration record. date information from the baby's chart and complete the EBC record. Hospital birth records staff must release the completed EBC record to the Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH). Failure to release the EBC correctly will delay the transfer of information into the Michigan Care Improvement Registry

(MCIR).